Important information about GEOG499:

- GEOG499 is a two-semester course. Student should register for GEOG499 during the registration period for courses to be taken in the first semester of senior year. Students should only register for GEOG499 once. Registration automatically carries over to the next semester.
- Students are required to complete Semester I coursework before proceeding to Semester II and completing their senior assignment project. Failure to complete Semester I will result in withdrawal from GEOG499, and students will be required to reenroll in GEOG499 in a future semester.
- Semester I of GEOG499 is offered in the fall and spring semesters only. Students may, with the approval of their faculty supervisor, complete their senior assignment (paper option only) in the summer semester.
