

TROY FIRE
RIP N. REED
 11/11/01
 :60

VIDEO	[SEGMENT TIME]	AUDIO	[TRT]
AERIAL LS TRACKING SHOT OF TRU-TONE FACTORY IN FLAMES (#3, 4:15) KEY GRAPHICS: TROY, IL	[10]	REED: A huge fire in Troy, Illinois, has caused more than three million dollars in damages. Authorities are still investigating what was described as "suspicious" circumstances at the Tru-Tone paint factory.	[10]
LS OF BURNING FACTORY, FIRE ENGINES AND FIREMEN AT WORK (#1, 3:14)	[04]	This four-alarm blaze lit up the sky over Troy early this morning. A security guard called the fire department at 4:30, and there
CU OF WINDOW WITH FLAMES (#2, 10:22)	[04]	was already a roaring inferno when firefighters arrived ten minutes later. The
MS OTS FIREFIGHTER (#2, 1:36)	[06]	source of the fire is unknown, and they say
MLS WATER SPRAYING INTO SMOKE (#2, 11:41)	[04]	they'll investigate whether arson was the cause.	[28]
MS CHIEF SHOUTING ORDERS (#2, 4:15)	[03]	Chief Jed Krystowiak (Kris-TOH-wee-ak)
TWO SHOT, REED AND CHIEF (#2, 5:02)	[04]	said his men battled the flames for five
MCU KRISTOWIAK (#2, 6:15)		hours before they brought it under control:
KEY GRAPHICS: Jed Krystowiak Troy Fire Chief			[35]
	[12]	KRISTOWIAK NQ: "We couldn't start..." OUT Q: "... before we got here." (17:51)	[47]
REED STANDUP IN FRONT OF TRU-TONE SIGN (#2, 21:06) KEY GRAPHICS: Rip Reed Newswatch	[13]	REED: Fortunately, no one was injured. Police and fire officials – including arson specialists from the state bureau in Springfield – say they'll have a full report by the end of the week. In Troy, I'm Rip Reed for Newswatch	[60]