

Friends of Music Scholarship Terms and Conditions

Award Details

The Friends of Music is awarded to the student's university account 50% in fall and 50% in spring and is renewable for eight semesters across four academic years providing that the renewal conditions are met. By accepting this scholarship as part of one's financial aid package the student agrees to the terms and conditions of the scholarship detailed herein. Financial aid awards will be available beginning in mid-April and can be accessed through one's CougarNet account (siue.edu/cougarnet).

Music Scholarship in combination with other awards and financial aid

The Friends of Music will be applied to university charges on the student's account such as tuition, fees, housing and meal plan. The Friends of Music Scholarship will be considered awards to meet financial need in the packaging of financial aid. Should the crediting of the scholarship in combination with other financial aid result in excess funds on the student's account, the excess may be refunded to the student for personal expenses and books. Please contact the SIUE Financial Aid office with questions.

Academic performance and student conduct for continuance or renewal of the scholarship

Continuance or renewal of the scholarship requires completion of full-time enrollment each semester (minimum 12 hours). Additionally, the scholarship is contingent upon the student maintaining a minimum semester and cumulative GPA of 3.00, making progress toward completion of a degree with a major or minor in music as determined by the music faculty and contributing to Music Department major ensembles as assigned. In addition to the renewal requirements for the scholarship, Friends of Music Scholarship Awardees must also abide by the University academic policy as stated in the catalog and student handbook at www.siue.edu/registrar, the Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy for financial aid and scholarship recipients at www.siue.edu/financialaid, and the Student Conduct Code at www.siue.edu/policies. Friends of Music Scholarship awardees must keep address changes up to date with the University and must check SIUE e-mail often for important announcements.
