“Think Together Better: Building Innovation, Collaboration, and Creativity Into Every Meeting” In this engaging session, you'll learn how to make every meeting better (including your virtual ones) and you'll leave with tools and frameworks that help you approach everyday challenges in unique, collaborative ways. Specific things you'll take away from the session include:

- Explore ways to make your virtual meetings more engaging to your attendees
- How to build simple agendas that get people to attend (and prepare for) your meetings
- Learn three ways to add at least an hour back into your schedule every single day
- Use Filament's Meeting Preparation Framework to help you prepare for every single meeting

“Leading With Empathy” In 2022, there are a myriad of challenges causing conflict, division, apathy, and lack of engagement and commitment. Listening to understand another perspective with authentic empathy for their position can transform relationships, organizations, communities, businesses, and projects. There are some key elements to successfully using empathy to lead. We’ll discuss what they are and how to use them.
