

Southern Illinois University Edwardsville's School of Business, the Metro East Small Business Development Center (SBDC) and the International Trade Center (ITC) at SIUE are proud to present this year's Fuel the Future Event

FUEL THE FUTURE

The second annual Fuel the Future awards recognize the outstanding example that Lange and Kniepkamp provide for expanding business, especially through exporting.

Tami Lange started her company, Save The Girls, in 2017 and has since grown so much her business is featured by Shark Tanks very own Lori Greiner.

David Kniepkamp has owned his business, Smart Controls, for over 30 years. Smart Controls designs, manufactures, and sells commercial building automation controls.

Come learn from these successful business owners and the advice they would give to fellow business owners!

WHEN:

9 A.M. - 12 P.M.
FRIDAY, APRIL 19

WHERE:

BIRGER HALL
30 NORTH CIRCLE DRIVE,
SIUE

PANEL:

TAMI LANGE
DAVID KNIIEPKAMP
KAREN TINSLEY-SROKA
CRAIG EVERSMANN
REGIONS BANK

Winner

DAVID KNIIEPKAMP

CEO Smart Controls

Winner

TAMI LANGE

CEO Save The Girls