| Important Definitions - University Policy & Procedures 2C9 & 3C8   |  |
| Consent is a freely and knowingly given agreement to the act of sexual conduct or sexual penetration in question. Consent is demonstrated through mutually understandable words/ actions that clearly indicate a willingness to engage freely in sexual activity. Silence cannot be assumed to indicate consent. Lack of verbal or physical resistance or submission resulting from the use of force or threat of force does not constitute consent. Sexual Harassment--Hostile Environment - Quid Pro Quo an employee conditions a benefit or service on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct. Sexual Harassment unwelcome conduct that is so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it denies a person equal access to an education program or activity. Sexual harassment generally includes something beyond the mere expression or display of views, words, symbols, images, or thoughts that some people find offensive. Additional information about sexual harassment can be found in the SIU Sexual Harassment Policy Sexual Assault is any type of sexual contact or sexual intercourse with another that occurs without that person's knowing and voluntary consent. Sexual Contact includes intentional contact with the breasts, buttock, groin, or genitals, or touching another with any of these body parts, or making another touch you or themselves with or on any of these body parts; any intentional bodily contact in a sexual manner, though not involving contact with/of/by breasts, buttocks, groin, genitals, mouth or other orifice. Sexual Intercourse includes vaginal or anal penetration, however slight, with a body part or object, or oral penetration involving mouth to genital contact. Sexual Exploitation is taking advantage of the sexuality of another person without consent or in a manner that extends the bounds of consensual sexual activity without the knowledge of the other individual for any purpose, including sexual gratification, financial gain, personal benefit, or any other non-legitimate purpose. Examples of sexual exploitation include: non-consensual video or audio-taping of sexual activity; going beyond the boundaries of consent (such as letting others hide in the closet to watch you having consensual sex); engaging in voyeurism; knowingly transmitting an STD or HIV to another person; exposing one's genitals in non-consensual circumstances; inducing another to expose their genitals. Stalking engaging in a course of conduct (2 or more acts) directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for their safety or the safety of others; or suffer substantial emotional distress. unwanted course of conduct that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his, her, or others' safety, or to suffer substantial emotional distress. Stalking can be a form of Sexual Harassment. Such harassment can be either physical stalking or cyber stalking. Stalking may present a safety concern or be an indicator of a potential safety concern. Dating Violence refers to violence by a person who has been in a romantic or intimate relationship with the Complainant. Whether a relationship exists will depend on the length, type, and frequency of interaction. Domestic Violence refers to violence committed by a current or former spouse or relationship partner, current or former cohabitant, a person with whom a Complainant shares a child in common, a person similarly situated to a spouse under domestic or family violence law, or anyone else protected under domestic or family violence law. "Aiding or Facilitating" refers to when any individual or group of individuals aids, facilitates, promotes, or encourages another to commit a violation under this Policy. Aiding or facilitating may also include failing to take action to prevent an imminent act when it is reasonably prudent and safe to do so. |  |
