Women's History Month

The LRC is celebrating Women's History Month throughout March. Follow us on Facebook for new Bilingual Story Time posts each Wednesday featuring women authors and new posts on Fridays with the theme "Celebrating Women Who Tell Our Stories" celebrating women who have devoted their lives and talents to producing art, pursuing truth, and reflecting the human condition decade after decade. We will also have speakers and activities so be sure to check out the March calendar for all of the details.

March Book Club

Our March book is Finding Me by Viola Davis. Contact the LRC to sign up and reserve your free copy. Book Club meets on the last Friday of the month, March 31 both in person and via Zoom.

All March, find a leprechaun in the LRC and turn it into the circulation desk for a gold (chocolate) coin!

The Tea to a Healthy You

Join us on March 22 at 11am for speaker, Ora Lockett, as she talks about her book, "The Tea to a Healthy You," and shares how her passion for holistic therapy led to her impromptu discovery of writing and publishing books and journals for those interested in business, health, and wellness. You can join in person or via Zoom.

Movies that celebrate women every Tuesday in March at 2:30 p.m.

Black Her-Storical Celebration

March 23 and 30 at 11am, Redina Medley presents "The Spirit of Women." A celebration to honor women from the ESL community. You can join in person or via Zoom.
