* International students and international partner institutions participating in dual diploma or other academic programs for which the University has signed a memorandum of understanding with their cooperating educational institutions will pay an alternate tuition rate of 1.8 (Level 2) or 1.2 (Level 1) times the applicable in-state rate per semester starting in Academic Year 2019. The rate will be determined by the Chancellor and based on the nature of relationship described in the memorandum of understanding with the institution.

 The selected International GEO recipients (up to 8 semesters) are assessed at 1.2 times the in-state rate.

 International Student Retention GEO+ - International undergraduate students who are targeted by SIUE to enhance international student retention and who have successfully completed two full-time semesters of coursework totaling a minimum of 24 credit hours will pay an alternate tuition rate equal to the current applicable in-state tuition rate per semester starting in Academic Year 2026. Classes taken in the Intensive English Program or other pre-collegiate programs, and classes in which a passing grade is not earned cannot contribute to the required credit hours.

International Programs:

- Direct Exchange - SIUE students studying abroad pay SIUE tuition and no general student fees. Students from abroad do not pay SIUE tuition, but pay all SIUE general student fees.
- International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) - SIUE students studying abroad will be assessed tuition and the ISEP fee of $6,852.10. The ISEP Fee covers general student fees, housing fees, matriculation fee, transcript fee, and meal plan charges and will be adjusted accordingly each year based on the increases or decreases approved for these rates. Students from abroad do not pay SIUE tuition or general student fees, but are responsible for the Housing security deposit.
- Study Abroad - SIUE students pay only the Study Abroad program fee, currently $150 (all tuition & fees are paid to host institutions).
- Travel Study - SIUE students participating in faculty-led travel study pay SIUE tuition and no general student fees.
